

The background of the poster features three wooden carolers. They are dressed in traditional brown and blue attire with white aprons. The caroler in the center holds a green five-pointed star on a thin wooden stick. The carolers have stylized faces with red cheeks and open mouths, suggesting they are singing. The overall scene is set against a plain white background.

Christmas Music from Germany

Music for Organ and Brass and audience carol singing in both German and English

A celebration of Germany's rich and wonderful contribution to the music of Christmas

*Vom Himmel Hoch
Joseph, lieber, Joseph mein
Nun komm, der Heiden Heiland
Es ist ein Roess entsprungen
O Jesulein süss, o Jesulein mild!
Wachet auf! Ruft uns die Stimmie
Wie schon leuchtet der Morgenstern
Stille Nacht! heilige Nacht*

Featuring members of the Ottawa Centre of the Royal Canadian College of Organists, The Cathedral Singers, and brass quartet: Michel Rondeau, Christa Lowry, Marc Larocque, Daniel Keels.

St. Andrew's Church
82 Kent Street at Wellington
December 18, 2009
8:00pm

$20 Adults, $10 RCCO Members, $5 Students
Tickets available at the door

A presentation of the Royal Canadian College of Organists